

Botanical Partners on the Mall

The Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History, Department of Botany and the U.S. Botanic Garden are botanical partners on the National Mall. As a result, there are a number of projects related to exhibits, research and plants.

Teaching Landscape for Life

Landscape for Life includes a complete kit of teaching resources that can be used to conduct classes in sustainable home gardening. Materials available include an illustrated teacher's manual and four slide presentations that illustrate the curriculum.

North American Orchid Conservation Center

The North American Orchid Conservation Center is a collaboration between the Smithsonian Environmental Research Center and the U.S. Botanic Garden with other public and private organizations to conserve, cultivate and restore North America's native orchids.
